

Module Title:

Construction Management (6 Hours)

Module Description:

This training emphasizes, integration of the distinct project contributors and stake holders, as to include, owner/developer, governmental agencies, designers, construction tradesmen and construction management team, how each is an integral part of the project life cycle; and the tools to manage and execute a project. The project life cycle is explored in depth from project inception to project close out as related to the construction industry.

For Reservations contact us at (787) 447 - 0097 or via e-mail:
training@pmrpr.com

Reservations require a deposit. Payments can be made with Visa, Mastercard or ATH

Fees include refreshments, materials and Certificate